

Table of Contents

| | |
|--|------------|
| Note on Disclosure and Independence | 2 |
| Statement of Opinion | 6 |
| Preface | 7 |
| About This Book | 9 |
| PART 1 – Medical Facts | 15 |
| Medical facts about Huntington’s Disease | 16 |
| PART 2 – Life Stories: Genetic Testing, or Not? | 39 |
| Christian’s story | 40 |
| Catharina’s story | 48 |
| Rita’s story | 56 |
| PART 3 – Life Stories: Struck by Huntington’s Disease | 63 |
| Beth’s story | 64 |
| John’s story | 73 |
| Karla’s story | 83 |
| Bruno’s story | 93 |
| Kristian’s story | 99 |
| PART 4 – Life Stories: The Family Experience | 103 |
| Lina’s story | 104 |
| Mathilde’s story | 119 |
| Henry’s story | 134 |

| | |
|--|------------|
| Katherine’s story | 143 |
| Hannah’s story | 153 |
| Helen’s story | 162 |
| Mark’s story, Essay 1 | 176 |
| Mark’s story, Essay 2 | 180 |
| PART 5 – Psychological Reflections | 185 |
| The meaningful conversation and emotional comfort | 186 |
| What therapy involves, and examples of specific topics | 198 |
| Neuropsychological assessment | 234 |
| Supervision and teaching | 238 |
| The future | 243 |
| References | 246 |
| Suggestions for Further Reading | 249 |
| Acknowledgements | 254 |